REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., April 19th.
To the Republican Voters of the Ninth District.
In obedience to instructions of the District Republican Committee of the Ninth Congressional District which met at the St. Charles Hotel in Maysville on the 18th day of March, 1906, the Committee directs that a Convention of delegates representing the Republican party be held at the city of Ashland on Wednesday, May 30th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress in said District, and also to elect two Delegates and two Alternates to represent the District at the National Republican Convention to be held at the city of Philadelphia on Tuesday, June 19th, 1906, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President to be voted for at the Presidential election Tuesday, November 6th, 1906.

It was ordered by the Committee that the Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee in all counties comprising the Ninth Congressional District call precinct mass-meetings, and that mass-meetings be held in the various precincts of the respective counties on Saturday, April 21st, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer, who may not be members of the Committee. These Committees shall hold their offices for the term of four years.

On the same day, April 26th, at 2 o'clock p. m., mass conventions will be held in the respective counties, electing delegates to the District Convention which meets at Ashland on Wednesday, May 31st, Delegates to be selected on the basis of one delegate for each 10 votes on Friday, May 25th, for McKinley, and also delegates to the convention which meets at Louisville May 17th, 1906, for the purpose of electing four delegates from the state-at-large.

On motion the Committee adjourned to meet at Ashland May 29th, 1906, at 2 p. m. J. S. HEYR, Chairman Ninth District.

C. G. McAllister, Secretary.

The rejection by the United States Senate of CLARK of Missouri and QUAY of Pennsylvania is of especial interest to one JOSEPH H. CLAY STYLES, BLACKBURNIST of the once proud old Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Those good ladies who are so zealous in raising funds to build a monument to GOEBEL, the partisan, should pause long enough to bestow just one ray of sympathy upon their grief-maddened, heart-broken sister, the widow of poor JOHN SANDFORD, whose life was snuffed out by GOEBEL, the murderer.

The Court of Appeals has decreed that this is the law in Kentucky—

"Concealing that there had been fraud, bribery and conspiracy; that unfairness had characterized the selection of contest committees in the Legislature, there is no remedy. It is a power given to the Legislature, and there is no authority to question the manner in which the power has been exercised."

It is to be hoped that the people of Kentucky, in their efforts to raise funds with which to defend and protect the innocent from imprisonment and persecution in the criminal Courts, will not overlook the services of one of the state's most able, patriotic and brilliant lawyers. Only $50.00 was ever made up by the candidates and their friends to defray the expenses of the present contest. Most of this fund went to the payment of witness fees and costs. A division of the remainder among the various attorneys afforded each only a nominal fee. In spite of all this, without murmur, without complaint, this valiant and patriotic man has toiled on when others have turned back, and has worked unceasingly when others have despaired and fell by the wayside.

The fee which he has received for fighting for the liberties of Kentuckians through the Franklin and Jefferson Circuit Courts, through the United States District Court, before the Contest Board, before the Legislature, before the Court of Appeals, and in a few days before the United States Supreme Court, would be an insult even to a shyster before a Police Judge.

An effort should be made throughout the state to pay, partly at least, the debt of gratitude which the people owe to this able, brave and brainy man—not in thanks, which is all very nice, but in dollars which are nicer and more substantial. We hope it may not be said of Kentuckians that they have repaid faithfulness with ingratitude, intelligent and attentive labor with neglect, and have let go almost wholly unrewarded the invaluable services of "the noblest Roman of them all," ex-Governor WILLIAM O. BRADLEY.

THE REASONS WHY

You Should Buy Your

CLOTHING AND MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS

...From J. Wesley Lee are he has everything that's new and always the very best that money can buy, and his prices are just a little lower than any who sell the same class of goods. Come in and see the nicest stock of merchandise, the handsomest storeroom and the best lighted one in the state. Respectfully,

J. WESLEY LEE,

N. E. Cor. Second and Market Streets, Dodson's Building, MAYSVILLE, KY.

HON. W. A. GAINES of Covington wants to be one of Kentucky's Delegates-at-Large to the Philadelphia Convention.

A DISPATCH from Washington says this day—

"It is stated by Governor TAYLOR's friends here that in his interview with ex-Secretary CARLISLE, the latter was earnest in expressing his desire and belief that the Supreme Court will decide in the Governor's favor. "Mr. CARLISLE also said— "Mr. GOEBEL brought untold woes upon Kentucky. It would have been a blessing to the state had he died a natural death years ago."

NOW, THE LEADER doesn't believe half the statements that are attributed by sensational newsgatherers to prominent persons; hence it does not print for truth the declaration in regard to GOEBEL credited to Mr. CARLISLE;—but if he did say it, he never in all his life uttered a more solemn truth.

The Goebel Law is the most fitting monument that GOEBEL could have.

It is evident that the House of Representatives and the Senate at Washington recognize General TAYLOR as the real Governor of Kentucky, for he has been admitted to the floor of both Houses. Pretty little boy BRECKINRIDGE ought to try this experiment—just to see how hard he can be turned down.

I will pay you your own price for a match to my hearse horse. M. F. COVINGTON.

Corn :: Buckeye Planters

This is the season of the year that every farmer should have a Corn Planter that is some account, and as that is the only kind we handle it will pay those who contemplate raising a crop of corn to start right. Corn will not grow until it is planted, and in order to yield a big crop it must be planted right. These are the kind of Corn Planters we sell, the one's that plant right.

We also handle

- COLLAR PADS,
- HAMES,
- TRACE CHAINS,
- TRICE CLIPS,
- GARDEN TOOLS,

HYPONOTIZED MAN DEAD.

Found on the Railroad Track Near Lexington, Badly Mangled—His Identity Unknown.

Lexington, Ky., April 26.—Shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday morning a badly mangled man was found by Patrolman Overly on the Cincinnati Southern tracks in the rear of the Catholic cemetery. When taken to the hospital he proved to be the "hypnotized man," whose queer actions have been the talk of the city for three days. The efforts of Sister Euphrasia to learn his identity resulted only in the statement that his name was Frank Shiner, his age 28, and the place of his birth San Antonio, Tex. He refused to answer any questions other than these, and would not say whether he had been accidentally struck by a train or whether he had thrown himself on the tracks. He died at 2 o'clock.

The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of J. H. Wehl to await further investigation. Detective Ready went to Frankfort and presented the baggage check found in the dead man's clothing. He was given a grip which had come through the mail from Clemens, Mich. The valise contained a pair of trousers, a number of shirts, underwear, etc., three toilet hats, two bottles of nosegays, two boxes of capsules and an unaddressed letter to his mother. The clothing was marked "H. Taylor," and the medicine bottles and boxes bore the labels of Druggists J. H. Westendorf and J. Shander, Mt. Clemens, Mich. On the capsule boxes the name of "Dr. Berry" was written as the prescribing physician. The body will be held here until some information can be obtained from Mt. Clemens.

Boarding House Dynamited.
Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 26.—An attempt was made at an early hour in the morning to blow up the large brick boarding house of Mrs. Lizzie Stephens, on Locust street. Someone threw a stick of dynamite into the rear of the building, and every window in the house and an adjoining building shook out. The shock was so terrific that the buildings for squares around were more or less damaged. The circuit court is in session, and Judge Cooper impounded a special grand jury to investigate the outrage.

Populists Favor Fusion.
Louisville, Ky., April 26.—A meeting of populist leaders of this city who favor fusion with the democrats was held here. Fourteen delegates to the national convention at Sioux Falls, May 9, were selected, and resolutions were adopted reaffirming the declaration of the national convention at St. Louis in 1895; denouncing trusts, favoring an income tax and the election of United States senators by direct vote, and endorsing William J. Bryan for the presidential nomination.

A Careless Youth's Act.
Morgantown, Ky., April 25.—Little Nora Stearns, a 7-year-old girl who was accidentally shot by John Fields, 17 years of age, on last Good Friday, is dead from the wound inflicted. It was another case of "didn't know it was loaded." Fields had gone out to shoot at a crane. When he returned he started to unbreach the revolver, forgetting there was a load in it. The weapon was discharged, resulting as stated in the foregoing.

Devised With Military Honors.
Louisville, Ky., April 26.—The remains of Lieut. John B. Galleher, who was killed in the Philippines, were buried at Cave Hill cemetery with military honors. In the funeral procession were several hundred members of the 1st Kentucky volunteers who served with Lieut. Galleher while in the Spanish war. Bishop Dudley conducted the services at Christ the Redeemer church, which were largely attended.

Jaillings on the Wing.
Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 26.—James Parker, sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for robbery, and Jim Owens, an Exile county mountaineer, escaped from jail here by prying the lock off a vacant cell and getting over the wall by aid of a chain. Efforts are being made to recapture both men.

Sentenced for Conspiracy.
Louisville, Ky., April 26.—W. P. Crites, J. J. O'Neil and Robert Locke were sentenced to three years each in the Nashville penitentiary and fined $100 by Judge Evans in the federal court for conspiracy to prevent Negro voters from exercising their rights of suffrage at the election in this city last November.

Civic League Organizing.
Lexington, Ky., April 26.—A well-attended mass meeting was held in the courthouse for the purpose of organizing a civic league. A number of speeches were made by prominent citizens and it was decided to effect a permanent organization at a meeting to be held April 31.

Tobacco Warehouse Burned.
Louisville, Ky., April 26.—Fire destroyed the large tobacco warehouse of W. S. Matthews & Sons at Duncan and Sixteenth streets. Loss on stock estimated at $125,000, on building, $50,000, fully covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Deer Baker Acquitted.
Barbourville, Ky., April 26.—The jury in the case of the commonwealth against De Baker, accused of being an accessory of Tom Baker in the murder of Will White, brought in a verdict of not guilty. The verdict is a precedent case.

My stock is now replete with correct styles of Spring and Summer Millinery.
